Throughout this document when referring to your insurance broker or adviser, we may refer to them as your intermediary.

If you are not satisfied with the information provided by your intermediary, you can contact us at the address or telephone number shown on the back cover of this document. However, we are only able to provide factual information or general advice about the product. We do not give advice on whether the product is appropriate for your personal objectives, needs or financial situation.

Our contract with you

This policy is a contract of insurance between the insured and Zurich and contains all the details of the cover we provide.

This policy is made up of:

- the policy wording. It states what is covered, sets out the claims procedure, Exclusions and other terms and conditions of cover;
- the information you provide to us when applying for insurance cover;
- the most current policy schedule issued by us. The schedule is a separate document unique to the insured. It includes any changes, Exclusions, terms and conditions made to suit the individual circumstances and may amend the policy; and
- any other changes advised by us in writing (such as an endorsement). These changes vary or modify the above documents.

Please note, only those covers shown in the schedule are insured. Please keep this policy in a safe place. We reserve the right to change the terms of this product where permitted to do so by law.

Words with special meaning

We italicise terms in this PDS, to show that words are abbreviations or have a particular defined meaning. You should refer to the Definitions in this document to obtain the full meaning of such terms.

Significant issues to consider

Insurance contracts contain policy exclusions, policy terms and conditions and policy limits and sub-limits that you should be aware of when deciding to purchase our product. These things may affect the amount of the payment that we will make to you if you have a claim.

We may express some policy terms, policy limits or sub-limits as being either a dollar amount or a percentage of your sum insured shown in your schedule or some other amount, factor or item specified in the relevant clause of your document.

You should be aware of the following matters in considering whether this product is suitable for your needs.

Basis of settlement

Under 3.2 'Basis of valuation' we explain how your goods will be valued in the event of a loss. The agreed value of the goods, with some exceptions as outlined in clauses 3.2.1, 3.2.2 and 3.2.3, is new for old. Please refer to page 14 for full details.

Excesses can apply

When you make a claim under this policy you may be required to pay an excess. An excess is not an additional fee charged by us at the time of making a claim. Rather, it is the uninsured first portion of loss for which you are otherwise covered, i.e. the amount that you must contribute towards each claim.

The amount of your excess is shown in your schedule and you must pay this amount in the event of any claim.

Upon acceptance of your claim you will be required to pay the amount of your excess either to us or to the repairer. We will advise you to whom your excess must be paid.

Exclusions

This policy contains exclusions, some of which are common in insurance policies and some may be less common, and as such may be unexpected. Your policy excludes or limits cover in the following circumstances, we may not pay for loss or damage caused by:

- delay;
- wear and tear, moth, vermin, normal atmospheric or climactic conditions or inherent vice;
- mechanical, electrical or electronic breakdown or malfunction of goods where there is no external evidence that an event insured against has occurred, unless Platinum cover is selected;
- loss of data from any computer hardware or software.

An example of a less common exclusion is found on page 14 which excludes cover caused by a cyber attack. Before making a decision to purchase this policy you should read the full details of all exclusions contained in the policy wording. Some exclusions may not be relevant to you, however you should be aware of all the exclusions. Please refer to 6. 'Exclusions' on page 15 to ascertain if the cover is adequate for your requirements.

Terms and conditions

Terms and conditions applicable to your policy set out your obligations with which you need to comply. Please refer from page 17.

You should be aware of all the terms and conditions that apply to this policy. If you do not meet the terms and conditions, we may be able to decline or reduce any claim payment or cancel your policy.

Make sure you have the cover you need

You should discuss with your intermediary the appropriate amounts and risks for which you need to be insured. If you do not adequately insure for the relevant risks you may have to bear any uninsured losses yourself.

If you do not choose appropriate amounts that allow for the correct value of your goods you may be under insured when you make a claim.

Change of circumstances

You should also advise your intermediary to notify us as soon as possible when your circumstances change if they are relevant to your policy. For instance, if you change the destination your goods are to be delivered to or you purchase additional goods. If you do not tell your intermediary of these changes, in the event of a claim your sum insured may not be adequate to cover your loss, or you may not have any cover under your policy.

Duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

This is a consumer insurance contract under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth).

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us. This duty applies when you enter into, renew, extend or vary this contract of insurance.

Before you enter into, renew, extend or vary this contract of insurance we will ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms. When you answer the questions you must not give a false or misleading account of matters. Your response should tell us everything that you know about the question. Your response is relevant to whether we offer you insurance and the terms that are offered.

A misrepresentation made fraudulently is made in breach of the duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation.

Consequences of failure to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

If you do not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Circumstances relevant to your duty

Whether or not you have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation is to be determined with regard to all the relevant circumstances.

If we know, or ought to know about your particular characteristics or circumstances, these characteristics or circumstances are taken into account in determining whether you have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us.

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) the following matters may be taken into account in determining whether you have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation:

- (a) the type of consumer insurance contract in question, and its target market;
- (b) explanatory material or publicity produced or authorised by us;
- (c) how clear, and how specific, the questions we asked were;
- (d) how clearly we communicated to you the importance of answering those questions and the possible consequences of failing to do so;
- (e) whether or not an agent/insurance broker was acting for you;
- (f) whether the contract was a new contract or was being renewed, extended, varied or reinstated.

You are not to be taken to have made a misrepresentation merely because you:

- (g) failed to answer a question; or
- (h) gave an obviously incomplete or irrelevant answer to a question.

Duty of Disclosure under the Marine Insurance Act 1909

Your attention is drawn to Sections 23 to 27 of the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (Cth) and, in particular, that any contract of marine insurance is based on utmost good faith and in the absence of such good faith, may be avoided. Further, you have an obligation to disclose to us every material circumstance which is known to you and/or which in the ordinary course of business ought to be known to you. Every circumstance is material if it would influence the judgement of a prudent insurer in fixing the premium or determining whether they will take the risk. If there is a failure to make such disclosure, we may avoid the contract.

How we calculate your premium

The amount we charge you for your policy is made up of the premium and any government taxes and charges applicable. The premium is the amount we have calculated to cover the risk of insuring your goods. The premium varies depending on the information we receive from you about the risk to be covered by us. The higher the risk is the higher the premium will be. Based on our expertise as an insurer we decide what factors increase our risk and how they should impact on the premium. Each insurer can do this differently.

We calculate your premium on the basis of the information we receive from you when you apply for insurance. Some of the factors impacting the premium are:

- the level of cover you have chosen – Platinum, Gold or Silver cover;
- the sum you have selected to insure your goods for – a higher sum insured will attract a higher premium than a lower sum insured;
- the destination your goods are delivered to – countries, or areas, of low risk for insured events (such as flood or terrorism) attract a lower premium than countries of areas of high risk for insured events;
- the distance your goods are transported – longer distances will attract a higher premium than shorter distances; and
- the length of any period you elect to store your goods – shorter storage periods will attract a lower premium than longer periods.

Premiums may be subject to Commonwealth and State taxes, charges and duty (including Goods and Services Tax (GST)). The premium payable by you and the amount of these taxes, charges and duty will be shown in the schedule.

How to pay your premium and what happens if you don't pay

Premiums are charged and are payable before the transit of your goods commences. If you do not pay your premium by this date you may not have any cover and we may refuse to pay a claim. Your intermediary can tell you what other methods may be available to make your premium payment.

Taxation information

We show all taxes and charges as separate items on all schedules (for example GST and stamp duty). Details about GST as it relates to claims payments are shown in the policy wording under 76 'Payments in respect of Goods and Services Tax'.

Privacy

Zurich is bound by the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). We collect, disclose and handle information, and in some cases personal or sensitive (eg health) information, about you (your details) to assess applications, administer policies, contact you, enhance our products and services and manage claims ('Purposes'). If you do not provide your information, we may not be able to do those things. By providing us, our representatives or your intermediary with information, you consent to us using, disclosing to third parties and collecting from third parties your details for the Purposes.
